'State of Cities' is glowing report

Much to highlight by three mayors

By KEVIN CHIRI
Sldell news bureau

MANDEVILLE — There is little disagreement that there is an understated friendly competition about who is the best between the east and west cities in St. Tammany Parish.

And even though it was hardly stated as such at the Chamber of Commerce breakfast dubbed "State of the Cities" held last week at Beau Chene Country Club, the sell-out crowd might have thought that a time or two as

'Sldell has only had two negative sales tax months in the past three years of our administration. Lately we seem to go anywhere from 3 percent increases in a month, all the way to 36 percent. It's been pretty amazing.'

—Sldell Mayor Greg Cromer

Sldell Mayor Greg Cromer, Mandeville Mayor Clay Madden and Covington Mayor Mark Johnson took turns touting the progress, challenges and highlights in their communities.
